KOLAD – REFRESHING WHITE-WATER RAFTING

Kolad is a one of a kind location to experience the pleasures of white-water river rafting. The Kundalika River which boasts of calm stretches for relaxed floating in beautiful surroundings also offers a breathtaking trip through refreshing rapids. Kundalika is one of the fastest flowing rivers in Maharashtra and attracts adventure enthusiasts almost all throughout the year.

Rafting in Kundalika is dam-controlled and, therefore, possible only after release of dam water. The best time for rafting is immediately after the monsoons – between September and November – when water levels are high.

River rafting is conducted by government-authorized sporting agencies.

PANCHGANI – PARAGLIDING PARADISE

Maharashtra has some renowned paragliding destinations such as Panshet, Bhandardara and Chikhaldara. However, it is the hill station of Panchgani that is considered the paradise of flyers – with its clear skies, favourable winds and scenic hill and valley views. Panchgani is a well-loved location and important tourist points include Table Land, Sydney Point, Parsi Point and so on.

Bhilar, Khinger and Tapola are the most popular locations for paragliding in Panchgani. On a routine flight, flyers can soar to heights of ~4,000-5,000 ft above ground and enjoy a bird’s-eye view of the hill station. A flyer’s enjoyment of the scenic beauty of the hills is enhanced because the paragliding trip is anchored by the safety of equipment and guidance of expert pilots.

RAIGAD ROPEWAY – OVER HILLS AND VALES

Established in 1996, Raigad Ropeway is a non-profit endeavour, the only one of its kind in India, that provides passenger transportation to Raigad Fort – the final resting place of warrior king, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Before the ropeway became operational, the fort could be reached only after an hour's trek on foot. The Raigad Ropeway traverses a diagonal length of 760 metres and a steep ascent of 420 metres in less than four minutes. It passes through lush green flora crisscrossed with waterfalls and steep peaks – all of which makes the ride both beautiful and thrilling. The ropeway package consists of a to-and-fro journey, a visit to a museum displaying artefacts, weapons and photographs of historic times, followed by the screening of a film titled Shiv Teerth Raigad.

The facility is owned by the Shri Shivaji Raigad Smarak Mandal (SSRSM), Pune, an organisation started by Bal Gangadhar Tilak in 1886.

LOCATION FACT FILE

- Pachad village, the base station of the ropeway, is located in Raigad district and has a population of ~812.
- The maximum temperature is 38 degree Celsius and the minimum is 12 degree Celsius.
- Pachad is connected by rail (Veer station, 13 km from Mahad taluka), air (Pune, 143 km) and road (Mumbai, 170 km).
- Nearby attractions include Gandharpale Buddhist Caves, Varad Vinayak Temple, Mahabaleshwar, etc.
- Accommodation options near the fort are limited, although MTDC offers decent accommodation for about 50 people at its hilltop facility, which also has a dedicated restaurant. Both the lower and upper stations of the ropeway have restaurants in their premises.
- Lodges and homestays are available in Pachad village.
- Support infrastructure in terms of pre- and post-production equipment, artistes, technicians, etc. can be sourced from Mumbai/Pune.
- Mahad is the closest point for availing medical facilities. It is famous as the place where Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar began his Water Satyagraha – an event that proved to be a turning point in India's socio-political history.
- Raigad Ropeway has tied up with travel agencies based in different locations of Maharashtra.
